Re: E-Filing By Attorneys Appearing Pro Hac Vice

Dear Mr. Smith:

As you are aware, e-filing is now voluntary and will soon become mandatory. In order to e-file, an attorney must register with the Portal. In order to register the attorney must have a number. As attorneys appearing Pro Hac Vice are not members of The Florida Bar, they must be assigned a number to use to register with the Portal. The Florida Bar will be assigning the numbers.

Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.510 requires an out-of-state attorney wishing to appear in a Florida case to be granted permission by the court where the case is pending by filing a Motion to Appear Pro Hac Vice. The original Motion is filed with the appropriate court. A copy of the Motion is sent to The Florida Bar. Once The Florida Bar receives and processes the Motion, the movant will be sent a letter with their PHV number. PHV numbers will not be given out over the telephone. The attorney will use that number to register with the Portal and e-file future pleadings. The Florida Bar will not be ruling on the Motion as that is the purview of the judge. The Florida Bar is merely assigning a PHV number for filing purposes. The PHV number is not a Florida Bar number and may not be used to appear in cases when not authorized by the court. Until the attorney receives their PHV number, all pleadings will be e-filed by the local attorney designated in the Motion.

The Florida Bar began assigning PHV numbers in late February. Numbers were sent to all attorneys who filed a Motion the week beginning February 25, 2013. Letters were also sent to attorneys who filed a Motion from January 1, 2010, to the present as it is possible their case is still pending. The Florida Bar did not send letters to attorneys who filed a motion prior to January 1, 2010. If the attorney still has a pending case and needs a number, a number will be assigned.

If your office receives telephone calls from out-of-state attorneys who need a PHV number to access the Portal please refer them to 850-561-5840. They can speak to anyone at that telephone number. They do not need to speak to me. We will explain the process and assign a number.
